

QEF CEDAR BRISE SOLEIL

QEF offer a range of Cedar Brise Soleil manufactured from a combination of extruded aluminium components and Western Red Cedar. All cedar is sourced from Canada and certified No.2 Clear and better grade, kiln dried, with random or vertical grain as required. QEF Cedar Brise Soleil is manufactured to the project design with Cedar machined to plank or aerofoil profile.

Options

Timbers available

- Western Red Cedar
- Canadian Douglas Fir
- Siberian Larch
- European Larch

Timber Grades

- No 2 Clear and Better for WRC Mixed Grain or Vertical Grain
- 85/15 Clear for Douglas Fir
- Clear Grades for all others

Timber Finishes

- Natural untreated
- Client Specification

Machined Profiles

- Rectangular
- Aerofoil
- Shaped

Timber Format

- Solid heartwood up to 300mm
- Larger sizes are offered in finger jointed, edge glued format. Glues are exterior grade such as phenolic resin. Timber trim stock used for finger jointing is clear vertical grain all-heartwood.

